

The Livermore Echo

September 3, 1896

LOCAL ECHOES

The ladies of the Livermore Free Library Association gave a lunch in the library building [on the north side of First Street - the building which later became Darrows] on Tuesday, the proceeds of which amounted to the sum of $39. Mrs. Harp has been elected librarian and the library will very shortly be opened to the public.